Adoption Service Plan: Bulgaria

The adoption process from Bulgaria may include up to seven adoption services. The goal of this document is to help you, as a prospective adoptive family, understand who is providing which adoption service to you or the child you are seeking to adopt. Since MLJ Adoptions is your adoption agency (Primary Provider), we collaborate with persons domestically and internationally throughout your adoption process.

MLJ Adoptions, a Hague Accredited adoption service provider, as the Primary Provider, bears responsibility to develop and implement the service plan for providing all adoption services and to provide all such services, either directly or through arrangements with other individuals or entities.

Step in the Adoption Process	Service Being Provided	Who's Providing the Service
Home Study	Performing the home study on the adoptive family and reporting on such a study	An accredited home study provider in your state of residence approved by MLJ
Education	Adoption preparation education	Creating a Family & MLJ Adoptions
Identifying a Child in Need of a Family	Identifying a child for adoption and arranging an adoption	Ministry of Justice
Parental Rights of Child are Terminated	Ensuring the legal consent to termination of parental rights and to adoption/guardianship	Ministry of Justice
Referral Information on Child is Received	Determination of the best interest of the child and appropriateness of the adoptive placement	Ministry of Justice
Child Placed with Family, but Adoption is Not Yet Finalized*	Monitoring the case after the child has been placed with the family until final adoption.	This service is not applicable because the adoption is finalized in Bulgaria prior to the child(ren)'s arrival.
Family Decides Not to Move Forward With Adoption after being Matched with Child*	Assuming custody and providing social services to the child if the placement disrupts before the adoption becomes final	Social Assistance Directorate in region where the child is located
Ensuring that the process of adoption is in full accordance with both foreign law and proper ethical standards.	Ensuring that the process of adoption is in full accordance with both foreign law and proper ethical standards.

*These are not necessarily parts of the adoption process for most families

Should you have concerns with any part of your adoption process facilitated by MLJ Adoptions, please contact: Karlene Edgemon (Executive Director), Sonja Brown (Chief Operating Officer), Katelyn Smith (Bulgaria Program Director), or Mandy Mellen (Accounting and Finance).

Adoption Service Plan: ICP Primary Provider Service Countries

Families adopting from a non-program country, using MLJ Adoptions to provide primary provider services, will have individualized Adoption Service Plans sent to them at the time the country they wish to adopt from is identified. Because Service Plans and who provides those services to families depends entirely on the country you are adopting from, providing a complete Service Plan to families prior to knowing the country, is not possible. Below is a sample of what families can expect to receive.

The adoption process from _____ is completed through the collaborative efforts of a variety of individuals and organizations. The goal of this document is to help you, as a prospective adoptive family, understand who is providing which adoption service to you or the child you are seeking to adopt. Since MLJ Adoptions is your adoption agency (Primary Provider), we collaborate with persons domestically and internationally throughout your adoption process.

MLJ Adoptions, a Hague Accredited adoption service provider, as the Primary Provider, bears responsibility to develop and implement the service plan for providing all adoption services and to provide all such services, either directly or through arrangements with other individuals or entities.

Step in the Adoption Process	Service Being Provided	Who's Providing the Service
Home Study	Performing the home study on the adoptive family and reporting on such a study.	The adopting parent(s') home study provider shall be a Hague accredited adoption service provider. Adoptive parent(s') selection of the Hague accredited adoption service provider will be approved by MLJ Adoptions. MLJ will coordinate with _____ for review of the home study to screen that it complies in all respects with the requirements of both U.S. and foreign law and regulations.*
Education	Adoption preparation education.	To be provided by MLJ in conjunction with Creating a Family.
Identifying a Child in Need of a Family	Identifying a child for adoption, child background study, & arranging the adoption	Dependent on the Country
Parental Rights of Child are Terminated	Ensuring the legal consent to termination of parental rights and to adoption/guardianship.	Dependent on the Country
Referral Information on Child is Received	Performing the background study on the child and reporting on such a study.	Dependent on the Country
Child Placed with Family, but Adoption is Not Yet Finalized*	Monitoring the case after the child has been placed with the family until final adoption.	Dependent on the Country
